2016 Florida Crime Prevention Association
Orange County Sheriff's Office Nomination
Outstanding Crime Prevention Volunteer of the Year

We are pleased to nominate the Orange County Sheriff's Office volunteer, Fieman Hop, for the 2016 Florida Crime Prevention Association Outstanding Crime Prevention Volunteer of the Year.

Fieman joined the Orange County Sheriff's Office in May 2006. He has served as a volunteer for the Citizens on Patrol and Parking Enforcement Units. He has also assisted with special events conducted by the agency. He has volunteered over 4,000 hours and received a Distinguished Service award, two Certificates of Appreciation and numerous other commendations.

As a Citizen on Patrol volunteer, Fieman serves as a team leader and is responsible for patrolling neighborhoods and area businesses to report any suspicious or criminal behavior. He also conducts wellness checks on businesses, homes, neighborhood parks and disabled or elderly citizens. Fieman is certified with the Office of the Attorney General to conduct Residential Security Surveys. He contacts homeowners, who are victims of residential burglaries to provide them with recommendations on how they can improve the security of their home.

As a Parking Enforcement volunteer, Fieman assists the agency by performing a wide range of tasks. Some of his duties are assisting motorists, issuing citations, and providing traffic control at intersections, accident scenes, and funeral escorts. He is engaged fully in conducting parking patrols to ensure safety to the residents of Orange County, issuing more citations for violations than any other parking enforcement officer. This results in correcting errant behaviors of non-compliant drivers and provides thousands of dollars to Orange County. Fieman handles complaints that do not require a deputy to respond. This allows the deputy to provide the citizens with better service while ensuring that parking laws are being enforced.

Volunteer Fieman Hop is highly respected by Orange County's Sheriff's deputies, his fellow volunteer officers and colleagues. He is dedicated to the Orange County Sheriff's Office and the citizens of Orange County. He has consistently demonstrated unwavering support and devotion to duty as a volunteer and is very deserving of this distinguished award.
